

Professional Development Series

The perfect opportunity for Student AND Educator enrichment!

The Roycroft Performing Arts Series

The Roycroft Campus believes it is important to supply our community with high quality workshops focusing on the Arts, and we are proud to bring you this special 2011-12 Performing Arts Series. Lead by nationally recognized educators and professionals working on the Broadway stage, these workshops are designed to explore the mental, physical and creative side of the Performing Arts as well as to expand the theatrical skills of the participants. These workshops are designed for student's grades 7-12 as well as Educators in the Performing Arts fields. They will also include an opportunity for participating Educators to discuss and reflect with the instructors in an additional session following the student master class. All classes are from 7-9:30 for Educators. A certificate of completion will be awarded at the conclusion of the workshop.

Wednesday, November 2nd
Yoga for the Performer - $10

Wednesday, January 4th
What You See Is What They Get - $10

Monday, April 2nd
Acting Through Creative Movement - $20

Or sign up for all 3 workshops for $30.

SESSION I ~ YOGA FOR THE PERFORMER ~ Western New York's own Elaine Gardner will lead participants from warm up through cool down; emphasizing implications for the stage performer. Wear clothes comfortable for moving.

SESSION II ~ What You See is What They Get ~ Hamburg's own Cindy Ripley, a nationally recognized educational consultant, will lead the participants through cast building and character development exercises. She will tap the creative, innovative and 'yet to be discovered' sides of the individual. "Unleash your hidden talents!"

SESSION III ~ Acting Through Creative Movement ~ Straight from the Broadway stage of "Anything Goes", Professional Actor, Educator and East Aurora native Justin (Gomlak) Greer will share his performing expertise with the participants. Through the choreography of a Broadway show tune, he will demonstrate the technique of 'bringing the scene to life' with personal and creative innovations added to given choreography.

Seating is limited ~ REGISTER TODAY!
